

Karen Trowell

Type of governor: Head of School – appointed in 2017. [Previously Staff Governor 2011-17]

Occupational background: I attended the University of London where I qualified with a BA(Hons) in education, I have taught in a variety of Primary schools across two local authorities. I have taught from Foundation Stage up to Year 6 and have led all core subjects during this time.

About me: I have always been passionate about education and improving the lives of others. Having taught at Sutton-at-Hone for over 10 years now it has become a very important part of my life. I am committed to the school and the community that we serve and strive to ensure that our children achieve their full potential whilst becoming confident and positive contributors to society. I have 2 children of my own which enables me to constantly reflect on my practice and consider the school from a different perspective.
