

Danielle Davenport

Type of governor: Parent governor (from Nov 2019)

Occupational background: I started my career within fostering and adoption, initially with a private company and later the local authority. Then specifically supporting the education for children in care. I did this whilst completing my BA Hons in Education Studies. I gained my QTS whilst working at a local primary school. Since then I have worked in other local primary schools and I am now Assistant Headteacher leading on Inclusion.

About me: I am a mum of three beautifully unique girls, two of which attend Sutton at Hone. I am committed to supporting their school in their journey to ensure all children have the best, individual learning journey they deserve. I believe my skills, knowledge and commitment will bring value to the governing body and Sutton at Hone Primary Academy.
